1623. Original Painting by T.L. Lange Titled "Matriarch" $750

Artist Biography

T.L. Lange studied drawing and painting at Winthrop University at Rock Hill, SC. After a brief stint in Atlanta, he moved to NC where he maintained his home and atelier until his untimely death at the age of 36.

According to Lange, he started to work with "concrete visions", and actually began several paintings at one time. He tried to allow some form of synchronicity to determine his next decision. As the artist said, "I make marks for the sake of themselves. I create error that I find attractive in all of our everyday lives. However, I leave it hanging three marks shy of discernment. What I mean by this is that I choose that is not to be understood or to be scrutinized by its details or its adherence to reality--only to be seen for its sense and its nostalgic response without my personal sentiment."

It is important for the viewer to find out the story T.L. Lange had identified. He wanted them to take the images he had given and create their own narrative. It was his feeling that we all see what we want to see based upon our experience.

A highly skilled artist, T.L. Lange had exhibited in numerous, prominent galleries in his young career. A condensed list includes Artworks Gallery (Salt Lake City, UT), Art Works (Atlanta, GA), Human Arts Gallery (Atlanta, GA), Landsdell Gallery (Atlanta, GA) and Art Dallas (Dallas, TX), Mary Bell Galleries (Chicago, IL), and Foster White Galleries (Seattle, WA).

T.L. Lange's remarkable artwork can be found in many private, corporate, and public collections including Wentworth Galleries, Larson Juhl Frames, Saks Fifth Avenue Corporation and Microsoft Corporation.

T.L. Lange passed away on January 23rd, 2002.

1627. Charlotte is the Queen of Cities $250

SYDNEY W. DURRETT

"Born and raised in Cary, NC I developed a love for art as far back as I can remember. I attended East Carolina University, where I earned my Bachelor's degree in Interior Design. Before moving to CLT I was working for a Southern Living Homebuilder as a designer living in the Triangle. It wasn't until a turn of events and change of scenery that lead me to pursuing my passion for painting as a full-time career.

Moving to Charlotte less than a year ago, I have quickly fallen in love with the Queen City and all that it has to offer...in particular the art community! Its given me a new outlook on life which has inspired me to follow my dream as a female artist. With all of that being said, none of it would be possible without the support from you guys! Ya'll are the reason local businesses like myself are here!"

Majority of my work is done on either stretched canvas or canvas pad using an acrylic medium. Inspired by light, movement, surprising color combinations and texture, I try to collaborate these elements to form realistic-impressionistic compositions. I also do what I can to incorporate my love for interior design as part of the creative process. As you follow my journey you'll see that I am forever learning and trying new techniques as well as subject matters. Hope you enjoy!

About the Artist Cindy B. Canty

"I had been a photographer for several years when my mom was diagnosed with breast cancer. I tried many times to get our family together for a portrait, but our schedules never allowed it. Sadly, my mom passed away before that moment arose. As I take portraits of other families, I wish I could go back and take one last portrait of my mom. I realize now that anytime during that last year would've been perfect. When I create a portrait for you, it's not just about creating beautiful art, it's about preventing the same regrets I experience. It's about increasing a child's self-esteem because it's been proven in psychological studies that having a family portrait in the home helps children feel more connected. It helps them to know they are important in their family. It's about giving today's generation something to hold when we are gone because life is more than what's happening on social media. It's about creating moments because moments create memories and it is those memories that make up a life. What better way to showcase those moments, your legacy, than with an original and exclusive fine art portrait?"

Valid during 2018. You may provide a high resolution image from another professional photographer or an old photo to be painted or choose to have a portrait session with them at their usual portrait fee.

1808. Three Spirits Brewery Tour and Tasting for 12 $350

Three Spirits Brewery is pleased to offer you a private tour and tasting for up to 12 people.

About Three Spirits Beer

"Strange though the "jump" may seem, I am an M.D. turned brewer. I have made the life decision to stop doctoring and follow a dream. I had always wanted to learn home brewing and saw beer as a welcome fringe benefit during stressful times. I loved it from the start.

Making beer is like getting to be the mad scientist. You are only limited by your imagination. Over time, I got better at it, and people told me I should sell my beer. Surprisingly, my wife was onboard, with one catch -- that I get some type of formal education. Her research suggested that the Siebel Institute of Technology would be the best choice. Learning the craft of beer-making from people who had spent years at the world's largest breweries, along with the support and camaraderie of a menagerie of international students, proved to be one of the best experiences of my life. Before long, my vision for Three Spirits Brewery began to take shape.

After testing my recipes on thirsty and willing participants, I had a good idea of the types of beers Charlotteans would like. I also wanted my brewery to have an environment worthy of the craft beer being served. I envisioned something similar to an upscale wine bar for beer lovers, but with coffee-shop coziness. The name Three Spirits stems from my love of Dickens' A Christmas Carol and my earlier career choice.

We invite you to come join the new adult craft beer scene in Charlotte...experience the fun, but grown-up atmosphere...Find a new favorite brew...And enjoy your new home away from home with us!"

Legion Brewing Company was born from the ethos that sharing good beer with friends is one of life's great pleasures. That spirit of culture is alive in our neighborhood home here in Plaza Midwood. Legion Brewing's goal is to be a constant uniting force of community and great beer here in Plaza Midwood and the greater Charlotte, NC area. In essence Friendship. Our beer honors this standard as well; embracing our sense of place here in the Carolinas and the diversity and warmth and pride of home from this unique neighborhood. We are driven to push the boundaries of making innovative brews that taste of those influences. We do this using seasonally available, local Carolina and American ingredients in both traditional and innovative ways. At our core, every member of Legion Brewing recognizes that none of us got where we are today on our own. We stand on the shoulders of those who inspired, influenced, and taught us along the way. Thank you...It is because of these people that we are here today, offering our best to our customers and friends...old and new!

- 1830. Legal Remedy Brewing Beer Dinner for Four $200
- Legal Remedy Brewing is pleased to offer a beer dinner for four. Select cuisine from their wonderful menu that will go perfectly with the pint of your choosing.
- About Legal Remedy Brewing Co.
- "In 2015 Legal Remedy Brewing converted a vacant Rock Hill, SC auto dealership into a custom craft brewery and brewpub. With over 11,000 square feet of interior and exterior space, the brewery houses a 17-barrel brewing system along with two smaller brewing systems, which collectively can produce up to 10,000 barrels of beer per year. In 2009, a lawyer, a landscape architect, two bankers and a computer guy figured beer was a worthwhile use of time. Legal Remedy was born, and this crew started entering homebrew competitions. Over time, they figured they would "go legal." so they got a license from the Feds. They needed a full time Brewmaster, so of course, they talked to their local dentist (yes, dentist), who just happened to know a Brewmaster. Shortly thereafter in 2014, the first legal batch of Legal Remedy went to market. About nine months after that, the brewery on Oakland Avenue opened - and here we are. Needless to say we are omitting a detail or two, but we're trying to tell a story here. This is the most American of stories - people with a common goal trying to make something. We think you will agree the results are mighty good."

- About Blue Blaze Brewing
- Blue Blaze Brewing is the result of a collaboration between friends Craig Nunn and Sven Giersmann. What started off as a love for home brewing between neighbors quickly escalated into a mission to leave the rat race and share their creations with the world under the expert guidance of Master Brewer Steve Turner. Blue Blaze Brewing is committed to fresh, refreshing, full-flavored beer brewed locally in small, artisan 15 barrel handcrafted batches using the freshest quality ingredients, as well as organic malts and hops whenever available.
- Fresh from Colorado, Steve's career spans almost two decades. He is a Master Brewers Association of Americas member, a five-time GABF & World Beer Cup medal winner, and was recently a Colorado State University Fermentation Science & Technology Instructor. Spend the day in the Blue Blaze brew room assisting and working alongside Head Brewer, Steve Turner and commemorate the experience with a hat or t-shirt of your choosing.

- 1833. The DreamChaser's Brewery Tour and Tasting for 10 $250
- Waxhaw is not only a great place, but a great place for a brewery! The DreamChaser's Brewery is pleased to offer you a private tour and tasting for up to 10 total people.
- Highlights about DreamChaser's Brewery
- The journey began five years ago, when Neil Gimon looked at the positions he had with some of the largest companies and decided to work to be in control of his own destiny. After being a home brewer for over 20 years and winning awards as well as thumbs up from people that drank his beer, Neil looked at the growing craft beer movement and thought there are great breweries up in Charlotte, but nothing down here in Waxhaw.
- After sharing his idea with his wife, Anita, they began to plan out the brewery, listening to advice from other brewery owners, as well as Neil taking classes for the International Brewery and Distillery test. They both centered on Waxhaw as the place for the brewery. Both loved the town, as well as the history. It took them a year and a half to find the perfect location. Right on Main Street of Waxhaw, in the old Volunteer Fire Department building. It was perfectly located, and had a floor that was eight inches thick concrete, enough to support several fire engines, or a 10 Barrel Brewery! While Neil was a talented brewer, he did not have the experience to brew on a large scale. Enter Master Brewer Skyler Lachenmayr. Skyler had recently graduated from the Niagara School of Brewing, and for his final project, developed a recipe that won him a national brewing award in Canada, The Golden Boot. He and his wife moved to the Waxhaw area to take the recipes that Neil had developed and transform them from a 10 gallon batch to a 10 Barrel Batch. Neil, Anita, and Skyler hope that all of you enjoy our brewery and our beers!

- Note from the Owner
- "After two years of building the gym from the ground up, it's time to start building the brewery in the same way. We aren't trying to impress you with the size of our brewery or the decadence of our tap room. We're not here to brew the fanciest beers or prove ourselves to the beer snobs. We're here simply to craft great beers for great people. Our promise to you is to brew a beer for everyone on the spectrum - whether you like dark or pale, hoppy or sweet, heavy or light, we've got a great beer for you."

Without the help of our friends and family this wouldn't have been possible. There are no investors, no trust funds, no sugar daddies. Still, our greatest point of pride is the superior quality of our product, which we believe is the best darn rum you'll ever taste. (And just so you know, to us "ever" means from heretofore until eternity.)"

Cheers!
